Qualifications :—3. No person shall be eligible for appointment to the posts mentioned below unless he possesses the qualifications specified against them.

I. Secretary, Assistant Secretary or Manager :—(a) The degree of B.A. or B.Com., or B.Sc., of any recognised Universities in the case of societies having a working capital of Rs. 1,00,000 or more and S. S. L. C. (completed or eligible for admission to University or Government Service) in others; and (b) a pass in the Government Technical Examinations in Book-keeping, Banking, Co-operation and Auditing or the examinations in these subjects held by the Mysore Co-operative Institute; provided that a person who has taken the B.Com., degree shall be exempted from passing these examinations.

II. Accountants, Clerks and Shroffs :—(a) S. S. L. C. (completed or eligible for College Course or Public Services), and (b) a pass in the examinations in Book-keeping, Banking, Co-operation and Auditing held by the Government or the Mysore Co-operative Institute.

4. No person who has been permanently employed before these rules come into force shall be required to acquire the qualifications pertaining to his post.

5. No appointment by direct recruitment shall be made except by calling for applications from eligible candidates by means of advertisement in some leading dailies: provided that this restriction shall not apply to the appointment of an officer whose services have been lent by the Government.

6. Age limit for entry into service :—No person who has attained the age of 30 years shall be appointed to the service of the society: provided that this restriction shall not apply to a person who is already employed in another Co-operative Society and had joined its services before he attained his 30th year.

7. Age of Retirement :—No employee shall ordinarily be continued in the service of the society if he has attained the age of 55 years.

8. Period of Probation :—A person appointed to any post in the societies service shall be on probation for a total period of one year on the completion of which period he shall be confirmed in the post if his work and conduct have been satisfactory. The Managing Committee may terminate the services of an employee during the period of probation if his work and conduct are not satisfactory.

9. Leave :—Every employee of the society shall be eligible for ten days' casual leave in a year and one month's privilege leave with or without medical certificate for every eleven months of duty: provided that no employee shall claim leave as a matter of right.

10 The Secretary shall be the authority competent to sanction casual leave to the other employees of the society; and the President shall be the authority competent to sanction casual leave to the Secretary and privilege leave to all the employees including the Secretary.

11. Provident Fund : Every employee of the society who has been confirmed in his post shall be required to contribute to the Employees' Provident Fund of the Society in accordance with the rules framed by the Managing Committee for the purpose.

12. Gratuity :—When an employee who has put in atleast ten years' satisfactory service, retired from service, or if he dies while in service, the Managing Committee may grant to him or to his heirs, as the case may be, a gratuity according to the following scale :—

(a) For a person who has Rs. 1,000 or more in his provident Fund Account inclusive of the Society's contribution and exclusive of any loan taken by him—Nil.

(b) For a person who has less than Rs. 1,000 exclusive of any loan taken by him, the difference between Rs. 1,000 and the amount to his credit in the Provident Fund Account including the Society's contribution subject to a maximum of three times his substantial pay on the date of his retirement or death while in service, as the case may be.

13. Service Register :—The Society shall maintain a record of the services of every employee in its service as also an account of the leave earned and availed of by him. All changes affecting the rank, emoluments, transfers and other allied matters shall be noted in this record and attested by the President in the case of the Secretary and by the Secretary in the case of all other employees.

14. Use of Official Informations :—No employee except when generally or specially empowered or permitted by the Managing Committee, communicate directly or indirectly to any other person or institution or to the Press any document or information which has come into his possession in the course of his official duties, or has been prepared and collected by him in the course of such duties, whether from official sources or otherwise.

15. Pecuniary Relation :—No employee shall have pecuniary transactions with individuals or institutions coming in contact with him in the course of his official duties or accept directly or indirectly either in his own behalf or on behalf of any other person any gift, gratuity or reward from any person with whom he may have to deal in his official capacity: provided that this rule shall not apply to the borrowings by an employee on the security of his deposits, savings, insurance policy, etc., from other institutions.

16. Employee and Elections :—No employee of the Society shall by canvassing or otherwise use his influence in any election of the members of the Managing Committee or other office bearers of the Society.

17. Punishments :—Any employee who contravenes the provisions of rules 14, 15 and 16 shall be liable for such punishment as the Managing Committee may determine.

18. Any member of the establishment may for good and sufficient cause be punished. The Managing Committee shall be the authority competent to censure, fine, suspend, reduce, dismiss or withhold the increment of any employee of the Society, provided that the Secretary shall be competent to censure or to impose a fine not exceeding Rs. 10 upon all other employees of the society.

19. No kind of punishment except censure or fine not exceeding Rs. 10 shall be awarded to any employee unless he has been informed in writing of the grounds of which it is proposed to take action against him and he has been afforded a reasonable opportunity to defend himself.
